CAB. B - SLIDE 6

the Board having heard the statements of the authorized Agent of said Corporation aforesaid, and also statements of the Mayor and various other Citizens of said Village and being fully advised in the premises, and finding the preliminary proceedings correct and in conformity with the provisions of the law, the Board of Commissioners do find that the territory proposed to be annexed to said Incorporated Village of Flushing is accurately described and is not unnecessarily large or small and that the map of said proposed extension is accurate and that the prayer of the petition ought to be granted. It is therefor ordered that the territory within the bounds described in the ordinance set forth in the petition and in the accompanying Map be and the same is hereby annexed to the said Incorporated Village of Flushing Ohio and that the Inhabitants residing on said territory so annexed shall be deemed and held to be Inhabitants of said Corporation. It is further ordered that a certified transcript of all orders and proceedings in relation to the annexation herein prayed, granted and ordered together with the petition, Map or Plat, and all other papers on file relating to the foregoing proceedings, and that the same be delivered to the Recorder of Belmont County O. Jno. Cope, Berry Jesse, Jesse.

We hereby certify that the foregoing transcript is correct. Given under our hands and official seal this 11th Day of June 1887.
